

Advert

Project overview

The Department of Psychology is seeking a part-time Research Associate to work with Dr. Karisha Kimone George on an Enhancing Research Culture funded project to develop an Equality, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) Research Centre. The Centre will be particularly focused on supporting research in relation to areas such as:

- decolonising research practice
- destabilising systemic inequalities
- pioneering innovative pedagogical practices which increase engagement among underrepresented student groups, and
- developing inclusive research methods and methodologies

Role

The post will involve running a series of focus groups to develop an understanding of core research projects that should be undertaken in each of these areas. These research projects will form the basis of a small research funding call to be launched next academic year.

Skills, Experience & Qualification needed

- Candidates should have a first degree, and be in the process of completing a PhD.
- Candidates should have some experience in performing qualitative research (specifically focus groups) and in performing thematic analysis.
- Experience in championing EDI is necessary.

Selection process

The intern will be paid £18.67 an hour. The appointment is available from 13th May 2024 – 14th June 2024 for 2.5 days a week (17.5 hours a week).

Submission deadline: Please submit your CV and cover letter to karisha.k.george@york.ac.uk by midday 3rd May, 2024.

Interview date: 7th May, 2024

For informal enquiries: please contact Karisha George (karisha.k.george@york.ac.uk)

The University strives to be diverse and inclusive – a place where we can ALL be ourselves.

We particularly encourage applications from people who identify as Black, Asian or from a Minority Ethnic background, who are underrepresented at the University.

UNIVERSITY of York

We offer family friendly, flexible working arrangements, with forums and inclusive facilities to support our staff. #EqualityatYork